Emotional Stories from WWI

On Thursday 28 September the year 12 English literature class endured an emotional lesson based on world war one, and how it affected individuals in the class personally.

Not only did the students share how their families contributed to the war, but so did the teacher. Ms Dodd brought in letters and photographs from a relative of hers who was a British soldier which triggered a sense of sorrow. Although the experience was emotional, it also allowed students to view war from alternative perspectives which would benefit them as they are currently studying the 'Oxford book of War Poetry' and 'Regeneration' which is a novel based on the war.

FHS Library

Come and browse our latest books by Black, Asian and Ethnic Minority writers including the short story collections: 'A Change is Gonna Come' and 'The Good Immigrant' edited by Nikeshe Shukla. We also have 'The Hate U Give' by Angie Thomas and Alex Wheatle's latest novel 'Straight Outta Congton'.

FHS alumni star for Ravens in FA Youth Cup

On Monday evening 5 ex pupils took to the field in the Emirates FA Youth Cup tie for Bromley vs Maidstone United. All of the boys gave outstanding performances and were instrumental in securing a 3-1 win to progress to the next round. A special mention to Tahjae Anderson who scored the third goal after a great cross from Rhipi Kalala. Congratulations to Aiden Enver, Tahjae Anderson, Rhipi Kalala, Guy Baskerville and Kerry Ogbeifun on progressing to the next round. We have our fingers crossed for a good cup run and a potential game versus a professional Academy. To keep up to date with school results and good news stories follow @FHSPE on twitter.
