We are seeking to recruit an enthusiastic, dynamic and knowledgeable History teacher to join our experienced and successful department in April or September 2019. The post is suitable for an NQT as well as more experienced colleagues, and presents an ideal opportunity for development within a large and inclusive Faculty which embraces innovative teaching strategies to achieve strong attainment. The Faculty also offers a variety of extra-curricular opportunities to support the work in the classroom.

Forest Hill is a popular 11-19 school which exists to serve the local community through innovative teaching and a broad and comprehensive curriculum offer including a strong focus on the Performing Arts. Our joint Sixth Form - SFH6 - consistently achieves higher than national grades and has been judged to be 'good' by Ofsted (Dec 2017). The leadership of the school has resulted in the school being "well-placed to move forward" (Ofsted Dec 2017) and we are committed to improving the educational outcomes of young people. We are a community school where "pupils are cared for well" and "are helped to overcome social and personal challenges." (Ofsted Dec 2017)

- An innovative and enthusiastic History teacher with a range of teaching experiences and qualified to teach up to Post 16
- An outstanding teacher who combines a range of innovative teaching strategies and excellent relationships with young people

- Someone who enjoys working as part of a team by creating and sharing resources

We will offer;

- The opportunity to work in an established and experienced Performing Arts school which challenges the stereotypes of underachieving boys
