The GET Creative Competition

Does your child like creating characters? If so, this competition is for them!

The English Ambassadors are launching a character design competition.

What do they have to do?

Write a minimum 100, maximum 250 words description of an original character created by them. To get extra points, they could do a fact file or a drawing of their character. This is optional.

When they have finished, hand them in to their English teacher!

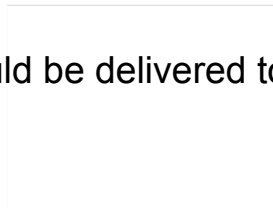

DEADLINE: Thursday 29th March

REMEMBER: There are prizes to be won!

Easter Description Competition

Your child can win an 'eggcellent' prize by writing a 500 word description based on the picture at the top of page 2!

Entries should be delivered to Ms Evans by Thursday 29th March!

LIBRARY- WORLD BOOK DAY

Our 'World Book Day' Book Club is up and running!

Go to <http://schools.scholastic.co.uk/forest-hill-school-for-boys> to browse the latest books and order online.

Your child will be given a World Book Day £1 token by their tutor before World Book Day (1st March), this can be used towards their order.

For every £1 you spend on this term's Book Club, Forest Hill School will earn 25p in Scholastic Rewards.

Please place your order online by March 15th, 2018

Check out the latest Teen Book Club range to find your next favourite read. The newest and best YA fiction and non-fiction at fantastic discounts.

Are you looking for a gripping new series to get into? Or perhaps some fun non-fiction? Our latest Book Club has it all! Plus, everything is up to 70% off, with books starting from just £2.99, so there's a book suited to every budget. Don't forget that every order over £10 will earn your school 25% in free books – so you can keep reading all year round.

One of our favourite books currently on offer is Marley Dias Gets It Done! Marley was only eleven when she started her #1000blackgirlbooks drive to promote fiction with black heroines – now you can read her first book, an incredible life/activism guide to help you change the world.
