

Name:

BTEC Music – PLC / Language for Learning

These are all the areas that you need to know for the exam- check of how confident you are with each area

Job roles- know what each job roles involves Musician/Performer
Composer/songwriter
Instrument Technician
Conductor/director
Live Sound Technician
Roadie
DJ
Record Producer
Studio Manager
Sound Engineer
Mastering Engineer
Session Musician
Manufacturer
Distributor
Retailer
A and R
Artistic Manager
Journalist/Blogger
Broadcaster
Software programmer/App developer
Venue Manager
Promoter
Marketer

BTEC Music – PLC / Language for Learning

Employment Types- Understand the different types and ways to be employed
Full Time
Part Time
Freelance/self employed
Permanent
Casual
Venues – understand how different venues operate and be able to give examples
Large Venue pros and cons
Small venue pros and cons
Health and safety and security considerations at venues
Organisations- understand how a range of organisations work
Know how a record label works e.g. jobs involved and what they do
Know the differences between a major/sub and independent label
Know the pros and cons of a major record label
Know the pros and cons of an independent record label
Know the what a music publishing company does
Know the pros and cons of a major music publishing company
Know the pros and cons of self-publishing
Know the what a promotion company does
Know the what a PR and marketing company does
Know the what hire and transport companies do
Agencies, unions and trade bodies- Know how different companies work and what services they provide Know the what PRS is Know the what PPL is Know the what MCPS is

BTEC Music – PLC / Language for Learning

Know the how royalties work
Know why unions are important
Know what Mu is Know what Equity is Know what Bectu is Know what MPG is Know what APRS is
Know what PLASA is			