

YEAR 7 – Life is a JourneyWhat journeys can life take you on?

Key Vocabulary and Terminology – Can you define the words? Can you use them in a sentence?	😊	😐	☹️
I know the key themes of the text
I know the historical context of the text
I can define all of the key vocabulary and terminology from the knowledge organiser
I can use all of the key vocabulary and terminology in sentences
I can explain how all of the key vocabulary and terminology relates to the texts I have studied this term
Key Skills – Can you do these in your written work?	😊	😐	☹️
I can make a point about a character
I can select evidence from a text to support a point
I can explain what evidence denotes (what it means in a literal sense)
I can infer what a character is thinking or feeling from what they say or do
I can use 'because' to explain my inferences
I can offer multiple interpretations using connectives such as 'furthermore' and 'however'
I can explain what a word suggests, and what ideas it gives the reader about a character or place
Key Literacy – Can you use these sentence structures in your writing?	😊	😐	☹️
The writer presents _____ as _____
We see this in the phrase "_____."
This could suggest/ may imply/ might convey that...
Alternatively/furthermore, it could insinuate that...
The word/phrase ' _____ ' might suggest... because...
The reader would think/feel/wonder... because...			