

YEAR 9 – Unit 1 – WWI

What can we learn about Ancient and Medieval History from sources?

What you need to Know	😊	😐	☹️
I know the dates WWI started and ended
I can define the terms alliance and nationalism in relation to WWI
I know the countries that formed the Triple Entente
I know the countries that formed the Triple Alliance
I can explain why there was so much tension between countries in Europe before the outbreak of WWI
I can explain why the assassination of Archduke Franz Ferdinand was a cause for the outbreak of WWI
I can indentify key features of the assassination of Franz Ferdinand
I can explain why more than one coutry was to blame for the outbreak of WWI
I can compare causes of WWI and come to a judgement about which cause I believe was the most significant and why .
I can explain how the British government recruited men to fight in WWI
I can describe the layout and conditions of a trench
I can explain how the experience of life in the trenches changed over time from 1914-1918
I can explain the differences in experiences of officers and privates (Tommys) during World War one
I can explain how and why the experiences of soliders from parts of the Empire such as India and the Carribbean was different to British soliders
I can explain the key events of the battle of the Somme
I can compare factors for the lack of success in the British offensive on the Somme in 1916, including the role of Field Marhsall Haig
I can explain Germany launched the Spring Offensive and why it failed
I can compare the main factors for German defeat in WWI and come to a judgement about which was the mist significant

Keywords

Cause	Event	Consequence	Nationalism	Imperialism
Militarism	Alliances	Triple Entente	Triple Alliance	Colony
Enlisted	Propaganda	Recuritment	Tenches	Stalemate
	Trench warefare	No-mans land	Creeping barrage
Stormtrooper	Spring offensive	Treaty of Brest-Litovsk	Turnip winter	